

Welcome to Al Sarooj Park
Your new destination in Al Ain

What do you know about Sarooj Park?

Al Sarooj Park is one of the initiatives adopted by Al Ain City Municipality to enhance the efficiency and management of assets and infrastructure. The project aims to activate public facilities and maintain their effectiveness to increase the city's attractiveness, improve the quality of life for residents, and create unique experiences for visitors.

The municipality is committed to boosting domestic tourism by developing new destinations for recreational activities. Al Sarooj Park features various attractions, including a community market (Souq Sabie), designated spots for mobile camping vehicles (RV Park), and 60 barbecue areas. The park also includes a children's play area, a theater for performances, traditional arts, and competitions, as well as a variety of services. Stretching 1.9 kilometers along Khalid bin Sultan Street in Al Sarooj, the park offers shaded walking paths, traditional seating areas, and public facilities to serve its visitors.

سوق 7 سابع SOUQ SABIE

As part of its efforts to bring attractions closer to residents, Al Ain City Municipality has relocated the Souq Sabie to Al Sarooj Park for its second edition, replacing its former location in the housing area. The market operates every Saturday during the designated period and features 200 tables for displaying and selling local family products. The market, combined with ongoing events, aims to attract more visitors and tourists, reinforcing the area's appeal as a unique tourist destination. It offers a variety of locally-made heritage-themed products, encourages small business owners to innovate and grow their projects, enhances municipal engagement, and involves the community in the city's development and preservation.

آر في بارك RV PARK

The municipality has also dedicated a space within Al Sarooj Park for camping and recreational vehicles. This secure and unique site adds to Al Ain's natural and leisure destinations, providing an ideal camping experience. The location accommodates 36 camping vehicles of various sizes and is equipped with a range of recreational, tourism, and essential services, making it the perfect spot for families and adventure enthusiasts alike.
